The Bowie delegates to the republican county convention are instructed to vote and use their influence to secure the nomination of J. V. Vickers for county treasurer, and J. A. Bright for assessor.

At the ratification meeting in Tucson Wednesday night, ex-Governor Murphy paid Mark Smith the compliment of saying: "I shall have nothing to say of Smith. If I get the delegateship I may do no more than he has, but I shall try to."

It has been definitely settled that Filley, who was found dead near Mount Reno last week, was killed by the Kid. The latter attacked others in that vicinity the same day, one having the pommel of his saddle shot off by him.

Jesus Gallegos was brought over from Dos Cabezas today suffering from a gunshot wound accidentally inflicted by the discharge of a 45 caliber pistol. The bullet ranged upward, coming out at the thigh, making an ugly wound. He is in the hospital.

Great excitement prevails among the democrats in Flagstaff, owing to the discovery made the first of the week that C. M. Funston, the republican owner of the Sun, is also owner of the Democrat. It is said a new democratic paper will be started in that town at once.

Deeds were filed today in the recorder's office in which the following named parties quit-claimed to the A. & S. E. railroad company the right of way through their premises: Margaret Dunn, $50; M. Little Roy Webster, son of F. S. Webster of Benson, died from the effects of a surgical operation performed in Los Angeles last Saturday. For years he had suffered from paralysis of the brain. A piece of the skull was removed and a quantity of serum extracted, but he did not survive the operation. His remains were laid away at Rosedale cemetery in Los Angeles. The grief-stricken parents have the sympathy of all in this community, where they have many friends.

ATTENTION, DEMOCRATS.

The polls for primary election will open in the several wards of Tombstone at 5 o'clock p. m., and will close at 6 o'clock p. m., Saturday, September 15, 1894.

Democratic Doctrine.

The Pima democracy incorporated the following sound sense in its platform yesterday:

We favor the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver, without discrimination for or against either metal, at a ratio of 16 to 1. And we demand such legislation as will faithfully carry out these pledges to the people.

We accept the senate tariff bill as only a partial fulfillment of democratic pledges. The income tax is a step in the right direction. It relieves the poor by taxing those most able to bear it, the millionaires that public legislation has created.

We favor the immediate repeal of the merchants' license tax in this territory.

We point with pride to the efficient and economical management of our public institutions under democratic auspices, and we pledge all of our nominees to a continuation of the reform and retrenchment so earnestly begun in every department of public affairs.

The statement is made that the Cochise county registrations will have to be done over again for the reason that the blank affidavits contain the six month instead of the year clause. The same style of blank have been used in Cochise county, but the best legal opinion obtainable says that the registration is good. There is no requirement in the registration law demanding any statement regarding a person's time of residence in the territory, and such clause is superfluous and cuts no figure.

Need Reforming.

There is an opening for a little missionary work among the Wallapai Indians in Mohave county. The Miner says: "Wallapai Charley wants it distinctly understood that he did not sell one of his papooses to an Indian, as has been alleged by his enemies. He says that he has given up the old Indian practice of selling females to bucks, and that he allows his children to choose husbands and wives for themselves. Charley is becoming moral in his old age. Some years ago Charley's brother, Sherum, sold one of his girls to a prominent lawyer of this county for four gallons of whisky. The old rascal took the liquor up the big wash at Mineral Park and retailed it to his dusky brethren at two bits a drink. The whole tribe was drunk for several days, and the lawyer had considerable trouble hushing the matter up. Girl papooses are looked upon by Indian parents in the same light that white people look upon a fine porker, as worth so much cash. Every Indian has to purchase his squaw from the parents, paying money, horses or blankets on delivery of the chattel."

The Land of Promise

Is the mighty west, the land that "tinkled with a hoe laughs a harvest," the El Dorado of the miner; the goal of the agricultural emigrant. While it teems with all the elements of wealth and prosperity, some of the fairest and most fruitful portions of it bear a harvest of malarial reaped in its fullness by those unprotected by a medical safeguard. No one seeking or dwelling in a malarial locality is safe from the scourge without Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Emigrants, bear this in mind. Commercial travelers sojourning in malarious regions should carry a bottle of the Bitters in the traditional grip-sack. Against the effects of exposure, mental or bodily overwork, damp and unwholesome food and water, it is an infallible defense. Constipation, rheumatism, biliousness, dyspepsia, nervousness, and loss of strength are all remedied by this genial restorative.

BENSON BITS.

Monday the Benson public school began its fall term with a fair attendance which is since increasing.

Sunday the companies of the 24th U. S. infantry which were sent to Raton, New Mexico, at the time of the strike, returned to Fort Huachuca.

A telegram received from Mr. F. S. Webster by Mr. Temple last Saturday, conveyed the intelligence that his son Roy Webster had died the preceding day.

At St. David last Saturday afternoon Mr. Henry Clifford met with a peculiar accident by which both bones of his right leg were broken just above the ankle.

Saturday afternoon Mr. W. N. Zeek left his bicycle standing in the sun. The heat expanded the air in the tire and burst it with a detonation like the report of a pistol.

The bridge across the California wash having been completed, track-laying on the Arizona and Southern railroad was resumed Monday. It is anticipated that the end of the track will reach the San Pedro crossing by Saturday night.

Sunday afternoon Deputy Sheriff Wm. Showers of Benson was violently assaulted by Sergeant Brown, one of the colored soldiers from Fort Huachuca. Besides hurting Showers severely he cut his own hand badly with a glass he broke in the affray.

Make No Mistake

If you decide from what you have heard of its cures or read of its merits, that you will use Hood's Sarsaparilla, do not be induced to buy something else which may be claimed to be "about the same" or "just as good." Remember that the sole reason for efforts to get you to purchase some substitute is that more profit may be made. Firmly resist all inducements, and in six weeks you will find that Hood's Sarsaparilla. Then you will not be experimenting with a new article, for Hood's Sarsaparilla is Tried and True.

"In one store the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's Sarsaparilla. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was perfectly satisfied with it, and did not want any other." Mrs. E. A. Gory, 61 Terrace Street, Boston, Mass.

We Are All Taking It.

"We could not be without Hood's Sarsaparilla. It is the best medicine we ever kept in the house. My family are all taking it." Mrs. J. M. Fox, 221 San Joaquin and Fremont Streets, Stockton, Cal.

HINTS TO WOMEN BATHERS.

Do not place too much trust in buttons and strings. Reinforce all fastenings by safety pins.
Don't venture beyond your depth and allow yourself to be rescued more than once or twice during the season.
Don't show your love of the water by staying in very long. It merely makes one's lips blue and one's complexion mottled.
Knows locks or golden, done up in coquettish knots, are pleasant to look upon than skin caps. But salt water plays havoc with coquettish knots.
The woman who is "learning to swim" is the recipient of much more attention than she who knows how to swim. Therefore never quite master the gentle art of swimming, but always be about mastering it.

When you are ready to open the door of your bath-house and appear before a critical company, remember that matters will not be improved by delay, and that the best place in which to hide your abbreviated draperies is in the water not in front of the bathhouse door.

Do not promenade the beach or lie in the sand after your bath. You have seen chickens and other animals whose natural element is not water, after a drenching shower. Be warned by those humble members of creation and betake yourselves directly from the waves to the dressing-room. - N. Y. World.

Three whistles mean "back up."
Two whistles signify "off brakes."
